To the Class of 2000:

We have finally reached our senior year:

We've run in late to our last physics class,
bought our final cafeteria chocolate chip cookie,
and slammed our locker door shut forever.

College letters have been mailed, finals have been passed (or failed) and graduation day is here.

As you sit there in your cap and gown with all of the friends that you have made over the years,
you look out at your family.

Deep down, you know that this is a once in a lifetime moment.

It is the last time your life that all these people will be together in one place.

Later,

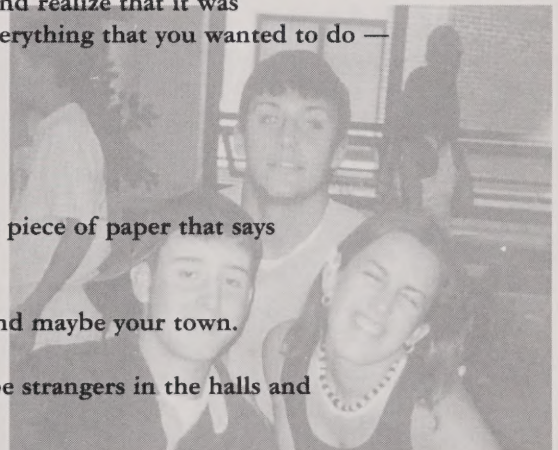

you will look back on your time with your classmates and realize that it was short-lived and that it didn't seem as if there was enough time for everything that you wanted to do — soccer practice,
SAT review class,
the Student Council car wash
and all that fell in between.

As they call your name, your tassel turns and you receive a piece of paper that says
'you are no longer a child.'

Then you say good-bye to your teachers, your school, and maybe your town.

You know that you can go back to visit BHS, but there will be strangers in the halls and few will remember you.

It will be different, and you'll be different.

But it won't be the end.

In fact, everything is just beginning.

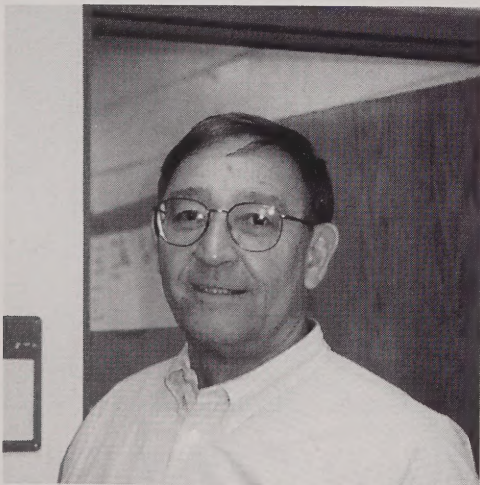

So let the good times roll, let the fireworks begin, and let's go out with a bang!

Please excuse the interruption . . . will Mr. Hicks, Mrs. Roderick, and Mr. Sullivan please report to the Dean's Office.

What A Team!

When we entered the high school as freshmen, you welcomed us as our dean. To some of you were a friend, and to some of us you were a father.

The rest of us hoped we were never called to your office.

You made our first two years of high school a success, and we would just like to let you know that we really appreciate the time and effort you put into our class.

Thanks so much, Mr. Hicks.

About a month into our junior year, Mr. Sullivan became our dean. "Who is this man?" we wondered. We realized that with Sully, we each had a clean slate to take advantage of. We soon learned his style of discipline as well as his distinct chuckle.

So Mr. Sullivan, although we weren't too happy when you caught us either skipping class (even though we really were at the library) or sneaking out to the parking lot (for forgotten money obviously) we want to thank you for dealing with us. Junior year was a tough one, and with all of us receiving our licenses we just . . .

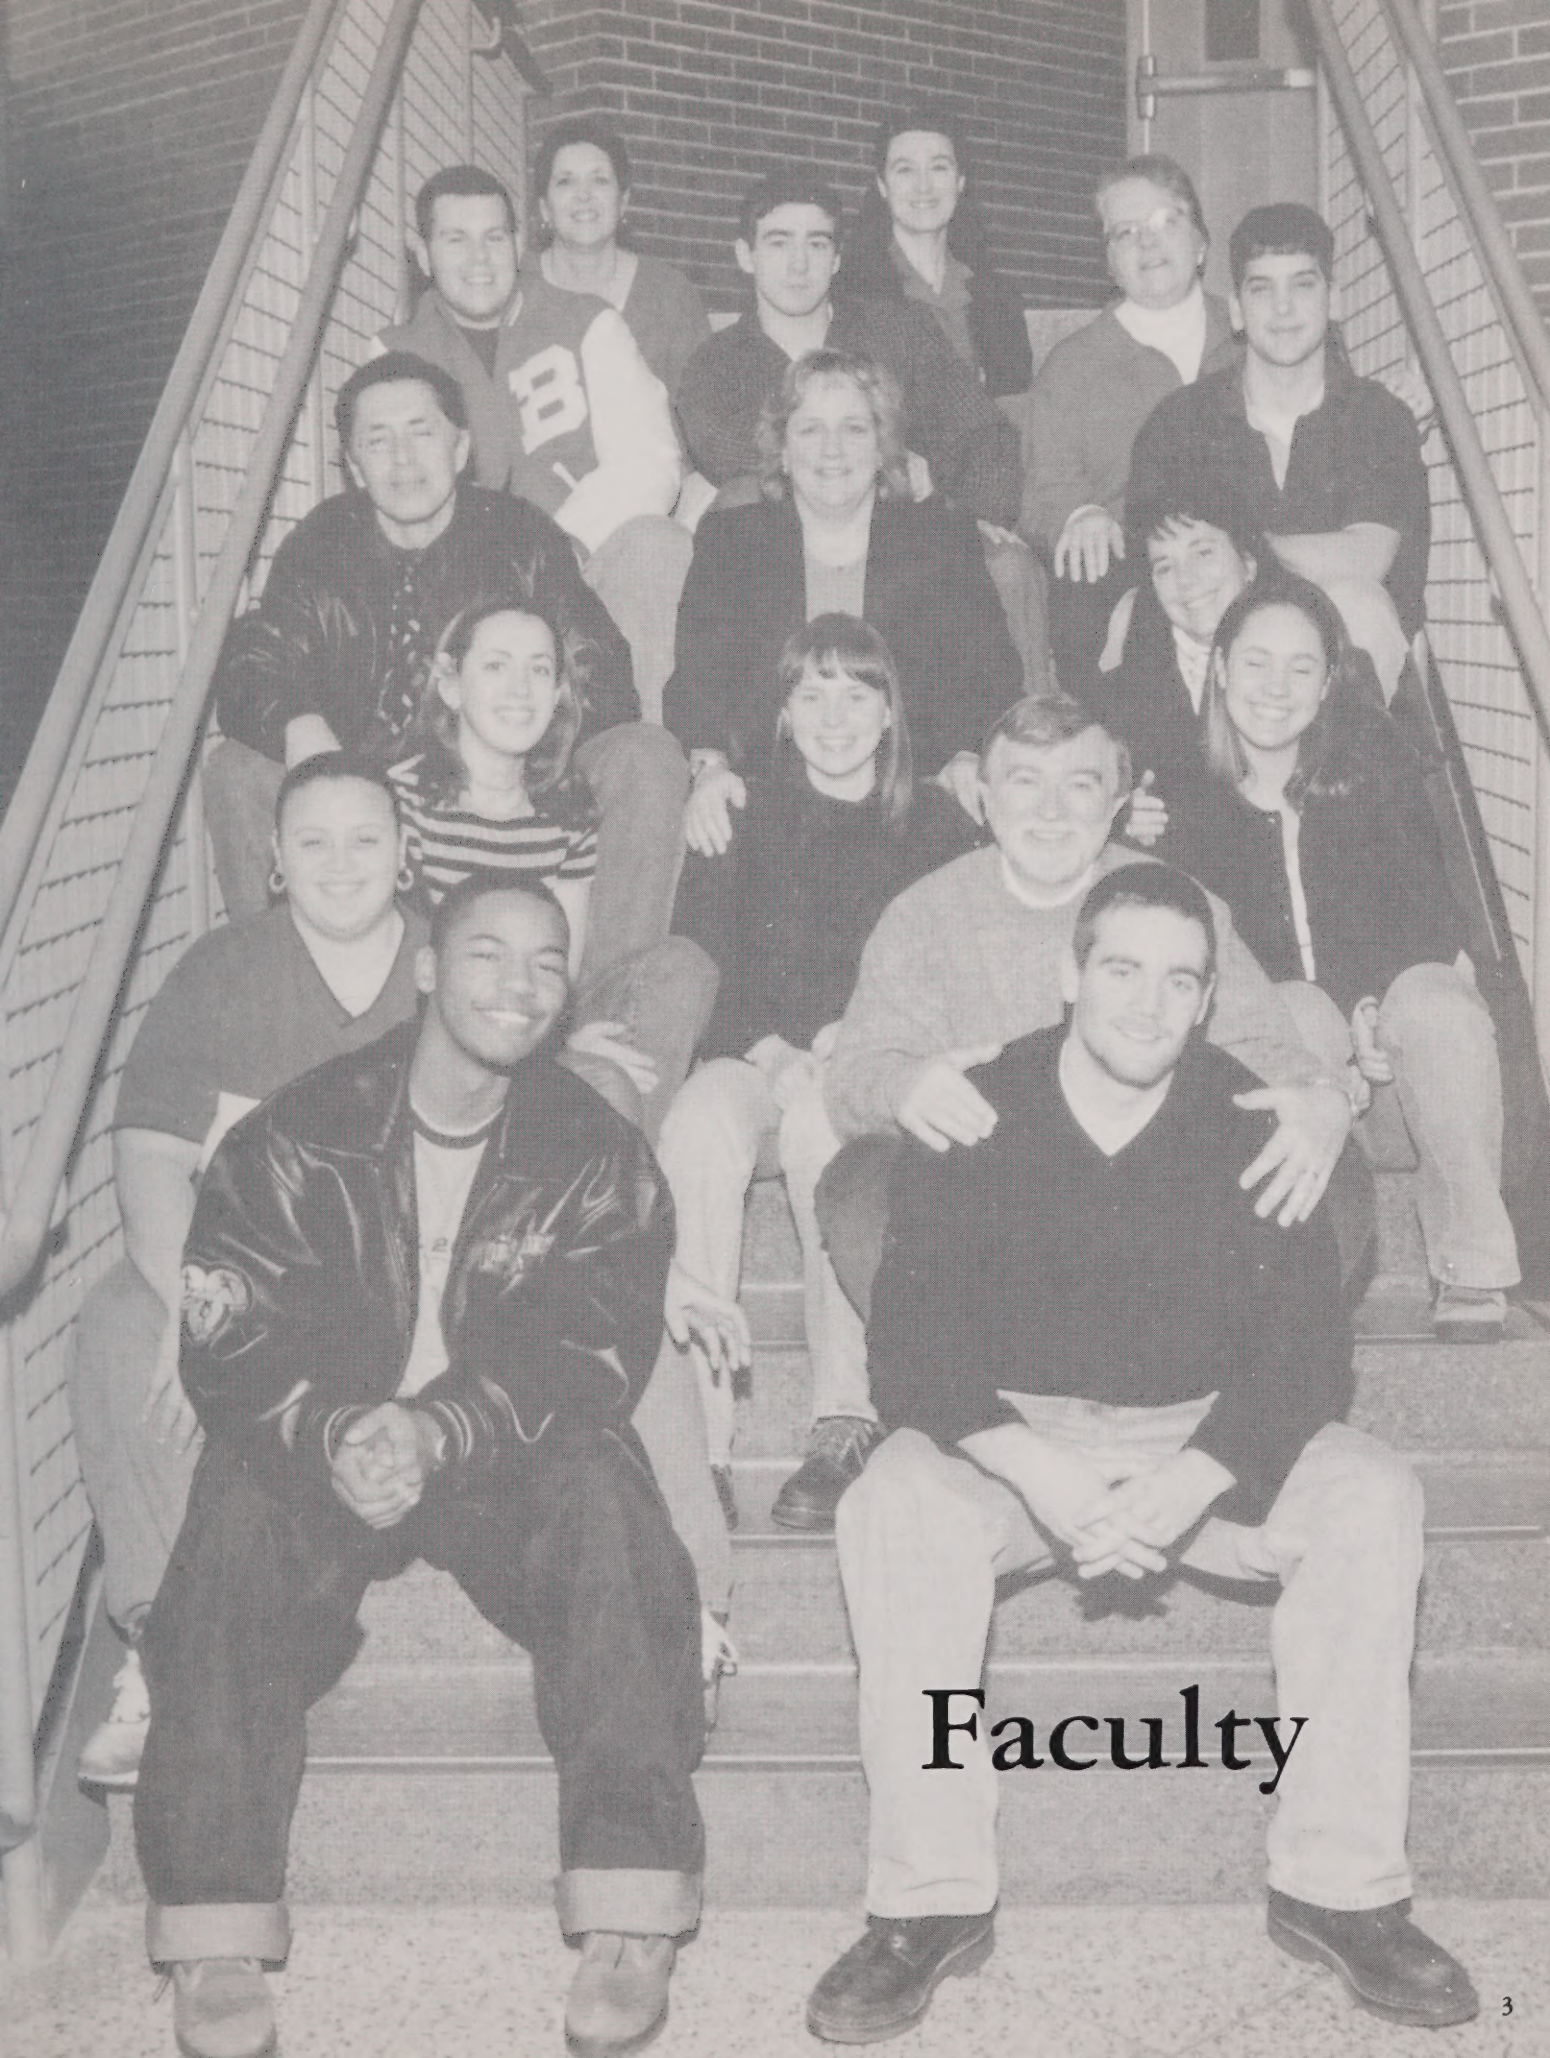

so thank you, not only for putting up with us, but also for being an all-around good-guy.

With affection,
The Class of 2000

From writing dismissal passes to reading our tardy notes, from scheduling our guidance meetings to sending out college transcripts-you've always been there to greet us with a smile. Going to the dean's office wouldn't have been half as much fun without you there to brighten our day.

Thank you so much Mrs. Roderick, for everything you've done for us.

Off to school with wounds of summer '97 . . . Camp, shack, starvation and Kevin. Grade 9 a fog. Unsure of my friends. Spending time with Ness — my soul mends. Swim team, crew, Em in Sinche's class. Pat @ the Coup. Wanna pinch his? Mary on the phone, talking all the while. Lumpy wrist. Sexy Jack's hair style. Becky yells "BULL". Delicious dinner at the Freemans' and my stomach's full. Martha's Vineyard, P-Town, and Fort Hill. Sleeping over with Ness, Em, and Magda at Motel 6 makes me feel kinda ill. Fly to Europe and explore the world with Ness. Get home: my family's a mess. Parents divorced, cockroach nights. Cris helps me through horrible sights. Summer '99 Ness and Cris everyday. Sol Azteca, Danny O, and Boston is my way. I've got a long way to go, and that's fine with me. People like Cris, Mom, Ness, and Mary keep my soul running free. I can recall that love potion I made; guess it never took. Oh well, another chapter in my book. Cris, I love you even when u r snarly. Rhymes w/"I'm the colonel, Charlie!"

Well it's been a long four years, and I can't say I'm sad to see it go. Sure I will miss Barnstable, especially all of you. But what awaits us is so much more exciting; college is going to be a blast and after that who knows. All I can say is that I had fun and I plan on having fun for the rest of my life. I suggest you do the same.

"What I want is what I've not got, but what I need is all around me"

When I look in this book years from now I want all the memories to come flowing back to me. I probably won't remember a bunch of abbreviated words representing all the good times I've had over the past four years. What I will remember is the friends who've impacted me and the experiences I've had. Some are sad and some I regret, but the ones I will take with me from bhs are all the good ones. Throughout my life I've had family and close friends lie to me and tell me that I can't do things just because I'm a girl or because they just don't think I can. I went through my life proving to my family and friends that I could do things. I finally realized that I don't have to prove to anyone but myself that I can do things, and that's that. I just want to say thank you to the few, but close and very helpful people that have helped me along the way: Mandy Stebbings, the P.M. Program, Mrs. Pierce, Matt H., Julie M., 00-17, 07, and the one and only Tigger (4-life)

Grant Desmarais

Twenty years from now we will be more disappointed by the things that we didn't do, than by the ones we did.

To all my friends, each too individual in themselves to do justice in this space, we all leave behind what no one can take away from us. Our memories. . . We will feed off of these memories for a lifetime and never go hungry.

Life's short; have fun while you can

We've come far, but have farther yet to go. We're off to some unknown place, hopefully to find the true measure of happiness that each one of us has the potential for. Part of me wants to stay, but then I think about what lies ahead, what doors are waiting for me to open them, and I can't wait to leave. Thanks to my family, especially my mom, who's always been there for me. Thanks to those people who have been fun to know-there's too many of you to write down, but you know who you are, and I'll miss you all. To everyone else, the best of luck! ... I took the one less traveled by, And that has made all the difference.

— Robert Frost, "The Road Not Taken"

One of the most positive experiences of my life has been this past summer, when I held my first job — not just any job, but a job on the new Cape Cod Central Railroad as Stationmaster and Webmaster www.capecentralrailroad.com. Although there were many long, hard days, with varied challenges, I always enjoyed going to work. I am certain that the friends I made through my job will be friends for life. Railroad, both full-size and model, has been a lifelong interest, and I've also pursued it in the past two years by teaching myself HTML and building my own "Cape Cod Rails" website, <http://capecodrails.railfan.net>, as well as websites for the Cape Cod Chapter of the National Railway Historical Society and for the Cape Cod Chapter of the National Railway Historical Society and for the Cape Cod Model Railroad Club (both at trainweb.org/caperailfi). Over the years, I've also enjoyed lighting design, set construction, acting and serving as lighting technician for theatrical productions at the Barnstable Comedy Club, Cape Cod Community College, and the annual Barnstable Summer School production. I wish to thank all my teachers, friends, co-workers and, of course, my parents for helping me through my school years.

"Some are born great, some achive greatness, and some have greatness thrust upon 'em. I fall under the first category."

Wow, my first and last year at BHS, all in one. Oh well, so goes it. I'll keep this one short. I guess I should mention the following: Jenn, "Kinjo" (if you need a bassist, look me up, the e-mail address is at the bottom), Mike and Earl (the only other Bruce Dickinson fans in existence), Jordan, Jimmy, Mr. O'Toole (here is my butt), Mrs. Cazeault, Ms. Mayhew (sorry again about the mall incident), Mr. Bradley, and anyone else I may have forgotten. Thanx to Iron Maiden (including Blaze Bayley and Paul Di'Anno) and Judas Priest for all those great albums that got me through that everlasting bus ride. Love to me mum and Susie. Thanx to Andy (dude/pap), Marc (Scooby Snack), Mark, Sue, Cyndi, Misha, Gram, Dad (T.J. the first), Bob, Larry, Dustin, Max, and Annette. It's been a great year so far, maybe it'll finish on a high note. Extra special thanks to Bunky, Smokey, and Old Frothingslosh. Love ya all! Drop me a line at magatsutaito@hotmail.com. Up to the Irons!!!

I'd like to give a shot out to all of my friends. Jamie, you are my brother, and I hope you have a good senior year at Tech. Don't forget our summer! Mom, I love you with all of my heart, and Dad I love you too. Thank you to all of my family for being always being there. Lee, don't forget the tree, car rides home, April vacation, and good luck in college. I hope all of my friends get what they want out of life, and more. To all the teachers who helped me through high school, thank you. Just remember all the good times that we had through junior and senior years. Hunter, what about that barrel? Lindsey, thanks for the invite to Limp, Murphy thanks for Buffet. I can't think of all of the good memories, but I know I had a lot. Little Marcus good luck! Don't do anything that I wouldn't do. I couldn't have done it without the support of my friends and family. To all of my women past and present, you're all great, and it was fun. It was a long fun ride, and now it's over.

She walks in Beauty, like the night
Of cloudless climes and starry skies;
And all that’s best of dark and bright
Meet in her aspect and her eyes:
Thus mellowed to that tender light
Which Heaven to gaudy day denies . . .
. . . And on that cheek, and o’er that brow,
So soft, so calm yet eloquent,
The smiles that win, the tints that glow,
But tell of days in goodness spent,
A mind at peace with all below,
A heart whose love is innocent!

"A Star is Born"

Years of wondering, and years of waiting to see what lies beyond these doors. I'm ready to spread my wings so that I can soar. There have been many classes, many books, many tests and different looks: my hair's been short, my hair's been long, never green or bleached blonde. I love to dance and I love to sing, I'm ready to confront many new things. New challenges where I can continue to sing, dance, and be creative in another place. I'm ready for the adventure of unknown times, sights that I have never seen before. I thank Mom, Bruce, and my friends for their help, support, and encouragement. Thank you for being there and helping me light the way!

"Year 2000"

Years go by, never stopping to reward, to fix the mistakes. They speed by slow at the time seeming never to end, yet gone by too fast. You wish for yesteryear or decade. Time keeps movin on, years keep flashing forward, time overlapping in the year, waiting for the next. Thinking of the new undone events ahead, 96, 97, 98, 99, the next is ready to come. In the new I will think of the old, now knowing what to do or have done with the months of thought behind an action, and with all that said, I shed no tears and with open arms welcome the new year! 2000.

It's been a great 4 years at B.H.S. Kevin Friel, whom I have known ever since 6th grade, who has been there when I could count on him. Then there is Brian Barnicle, who is a good friend and will go out of his way to help you. There is L.C that has just been there. There is Carrie, whom I love with all of my heart and will always remember no matter what happens to us. There is the President, Kris Dumas, who has given me some good advice over the past couple of months. "Thanks" Then there is primetime, who is quiet but a good friend and a hard worker. Then there is Afro, who was in my Jr. year. She is one of the nicest people that I have ever met and I thank her for her help over the past 2 years.

Love III

Love bade me welcome; yet my soul drew back, Guilty of dust and sin. But quick-eyed Love, observing me grow slack From my first entrance in, Drew nearer to me, sweetly questioning if I lacked anything. "A guest", I answered, "worthy to be here." Love said, "You shall be he." "I, the unkind, ungrateful? Ah my dear, I cannot look on Thee." Love took my hand, and smiling did reply, "Who made the eyes but I?" "Truth Lord, but I have marred them; let my shame go where it doth deserve." "And know you not," says Love, "who bore the blame?" "My dear, then I will serve." "You must sit down," says Love, "and taste my meat." So I did sit and eat.

Hey, everyone. These last four years have gone by so fast, it's hard to believe that they are coming to an end. To all my friends in the youth group, thank you for six years of friendship that I will never forget. I will always have fond memories of the Rumneys, Tenn. and soon Kenya. To all my friends, I will always remember you. These years together have been great; thanks. To my family, thank you for always believing in me. Even when I felt like giving up, you encouraged me and kept me on track. Mom and Dad, I love you and will always look back on these years with happiness and love. In the future, when I have kids, you will be my examples to follow as a parent. I have finally made it, whether for better or for worse, I'm here.

Four years draw to a close. It was nice. Time for a change. What I can I will take with me. Thanks to those that have helped me along the way: friends, teachers, all the people that make education worth the time. Thanks to the one who has held my hand and always made me smile. I love you, Amanda. Happy futures to everyone. Bye bye.

There is so much to say to all of those that I have loved. Mom and Dad, I will always be your loving little girl and appreciate the things you do for me, because in the end you will always be there and I love you. To my friends, especially Andrea, thank you for being there when I needed you the most. To Jason, you truly have been the most inspirational person in my life. You have brought me to a whole new sense of understanding myself; eating Ramon Noodle while on Mt. Kearsage, listening to Satellite, that's my buffalo wing and of course, this is a private beach and for that I will always love you. Thank you to everyone who has helped me along my way. Because, it's the quick and the hungry.

Why does life have to be so short but so long?

I feel like we just started yesterday, even though sometimes it might feel like forever. New friends, old friends they come and they go, I know that we'll miss them so. I know I'll miss some good times and some bad, for all we know the teachers could be mad. I might have been quiet, I might have been loud, but I know I am proud. Some days are sunny, some days are gray. But I know I will be a teacher some day! I want to thank some special people in my life. I know that people always say thank you to their parents but I still am. Following by my best friends Shannon, Amy, Megan, Jolien even my cousin. I want to thank you all for all that you have done for me and roommate don't worry I didn't forget you Moe. I left you and Jolien for last because I had met you in the same place I wish we could go on trips together all the time but this is our last time so we'll make it good. Amy my baby sister, don't worry you will be fine without me. Shannon don't worry your aunt will always be there for you. Moe I'll come visit you, and Jolien you will always be my friend no matter what.

Over the years I will always be grateful for those people who made this year unforgettably special to me. I believe there is no pleasure in life greater than knowing new things, meeting interesting people, and making good friends. And I, whom destiny has endowed with a strong sense of wonder, am lucky indeed for this priceless experience . . . I want to thank my host mom for being as kind and patient as a real mom can be. Mareika, Manu, and Charlotte! Though we had come from different parts of the world, we all know what it is like to be "far away" from home.

Special thanks to all the teachers and especially to Mr. and Mrs. Gyra! Words are inadequate to express how fortunate I was to be your student. What a joy it was to see Saturn's rings, Jupiter's moons, nebulae, galaxies "in the flesh." Star parties were always entertaining, pleasurable, amusing, and interesting pastime and I loved it. Thank you . . .

I never thought this day would come, and yet here we are, saying our goodbyes. The first leg of our long adventure is just about complete, but another, perhaps even tougher part is ready to begin. Remember the past, but don't dwell on it. And for the love of God, don't do drugs. It's a waste of your time, it's a waste of your money, and it's a huge waste of your life. To Mr. Carlon and the Gyras: You rock! Keep doing the work you love and making everything fun for you students. To the Astronomy gang: We'll always have cookies and Andromeda. To anyone who has ever or will ever survive Honors Chem., I offer my deepest sympathy. Mo: you'll always have a special place in my heart. 17 was my best birthday so far;-). It is great to be here as an exchange student and to have so many opportunities to experience the "American way of life". I have had some problems, but also a lot of fun here! I thank all the people who helped and help me here. My host family (especially my host mom) who tried/try very hard to help me, Mrs. Anderson and Mr. Sullivan who were/are always there for me when I had/have questions or problems, all my friends at Barnstable High, especially Natasha, Manu, Charlotte and Ann for their listening, understanding and help and the Barnstable marching band for receiving me so nicely. My special thanks to Carol Norman and her husband Dick for supporting and helping me so much and for taking care of us exchange students — "Thank you very, very much; you are doing a great job!!!" Also, thanks to all voluntary AFS members; without them this year would not be possible for us! And of course, many, many kisses and thanks to my family in Germany, which is supporting me so much in this sometimes very tough time and made this year possible — "Mama, Papa und Jan, ich habe euch unendlich doll lieb! Danke, dass ihr immer fuer mich da seid, egal was passiert und danke, dass ihr mir dieses Jahr ermoeoglicht habt!!!" and thanks to my friends in Germany who always kept/keep me company.

Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free.
I'm following the path God has laid, you see.
I took His hand when I heard Him call,
I turned my back and left it all.

I could not stay another day.
To laugh, to love, to work or play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way.
I found that peace at the close of the day.

If my parting has left a void, than fill it with remembered joys.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss.
Oh yes, these things I too will miss.

Be not burdened with times of sorrow.
I wish you the sunshines of tomorrow.
My life's been full, I savored much.
Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.

Perhaps my time seemed all too brief.
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your hearts and peace to thee.

God wanted me now; He set me free!

"The supreme happiness in life is the conviction that we are loved" — Victor Hugo

First of all I would like to thank my parents: Cláudio and Oneide, and my brothers: Cludio and Bruna that were always beside me and gave me strength at all moments of my life. I would also like to thank my uncles and cousins. Especially: Ricardo, Monica, Priscila, Leticia, and Julisa that gave me the opportunity to be here with them. Thank you all!

I know the time I spent here wasn't a lot, but during this time I met people that marked my life and heart. People that helped me, and were beside me at happy and tough moments. These people will always be in my heart. So, in a couple of words, I would like to thank you all. You guys were, and will always be very important in my life. That's for you guys: Mrs. Sands, Mrs. Anderson, Dyanna, Debora, Evelise, Nick, Nadine, Josane, Gustavo, David, Daniel, Cassiele, Joyce.

Congratulations to our State Champs
Football
and Girls
Cross-Country
Go, Raiders!

Here's to the Super Bowl champs and those who cheered them on!

FOOTBALL

An amazing season ... 18 seniors led the way ... big wins over Brockton and B-R ... co-champs of OCL ... Falmouth fell on Turkey Day, 36-7, and it's off to BU for the Super Bowl ... Joe Young, Stefan Gomes and Tom "Tommygun" Street light the fire and Raiders dethrone a dumbstruck flock of Eagles, 20-7 in a classic game ... Gomes led Division One in scoring and earned Globe and Herald All-Star honors and was named an All-Scholastic to boot!

HOCKEY

The hockey team hopes to qualify for the post-season tournament, advance as far as possible in the tournament and "field" a quality team ... Rob Parker has been the "heart and soul" of the defense as well as the assistant captain ... Joe Connolly's size makes him an important defensive player who just happens to have a great shot ... Dan O'Neil is another physical player who plays hard every day ... Brendan McNamara is an adept puck-handler on defense ... Captain Sean Henry is a quick skater and great passer ... Alden Childs is a steady performer and fills a valuable role on the ice ... Greg Hingston provides added depth to the left side ... Brian Hubbard is a physical role player on defense ... The team has a solid record thanks to their tough defense and goal-tending and their intense offense.

SWIMMING

The team's goal is to do well in the Pilgrim Conference meet and to beat arch-rival Nauset ... Six girls will be going to Sectionals and five to states ... Four boys will be going to Sectionals ... Ashley Canning is a "wonderful" captain and will be going to the States for the 200 medley-relay in which she will do the back-stroke ... Christen Dexter broke her own school record in the breast-stroke this year and will compete in two categories at states ... Darcie Pickering is terrific, and is also a versatile swimmer who will compete in practically any event ... Brendan Glesman joined the team this year and is already the team's top 100 flyer and 200 freestyle ... Adam Rowe has been great this year on improving his times ... Jeff Wells has been an amazing asset to the team ... The relatively small swim team has done relatively well!

BOYS BASKETBALL

The best season in years ... as with so many other Raider teams this year, seniors packed the roster ... how about this talent? Stefan Gomes (as big on the court as he is on the gridiron ... cool 'n' calm Devin Fitzgibbons ... Chris Northrop always seems good for 19 ... battlers Travis Paddock, Matt Broughton, Tom Street, Marvin Domino and Chris Bentley always bring their "A" game ... Cape Cod Classic champs ... aiming to go deep into the tourney ... See you at the Fleet, gang?

GIRLS BASKETBALL

This year, teams seemed to be all seniors or no seniors ... the latter's true of girls b'ball ... tough season at times, but these girls can play — and they don't quit ... 6'1" freshman Liz Curley was a go-to player, with 17 ppg and a bushelful of rebounds ... Then there's Amy Lyon, who poured in the points all year, but picked up the slack when Curley went down with a bad sprain for a few games ... gotta love the game in these girls ... watch out, OCL!

GYMNASTICS

Another young team — and this one's a powerhouse . . . the "baby Raiders" stamped through the season en route to the OCL crown . . . juniors Stephanie Kelly and Cara Lombardi were the pacesetters all season . . . ditto for Jill Pacheco and Melissa Morin . . . then they tore up the gym at the South Sectionals, beating 11 other teams to advance to the State Meet in Foxboro . . . nobody came within six points of the Raiders, a huge differential in a sport measured in hundredths of points . . . maybe yet another state banner for BHS?

Congratulations Bradley,

Graduation from high school is one of the steps in the journey of life.

Remember that education is precious. Service to mankind is more important than money. Don't let "the draft" return. "The words of the prophets are written on the subway walls." You must learn from history so as not to let history repeat itself.

Thomas Jefferson felt that there was a "natural aristocracy based on virtue and talents." He also felt there was "an artificial aristocracy founded on wealth and birth, without either virtue or talents." Remember to use virtue and talents with care and understanding.

The generation before you ended the draft, made the blind see, the lame walk, and conquered disease. New diseases have evolved. The world is waiting for your generation to try your hand at helping mankind.

In any case, don't let the world come to being a place where "everything you think, do, or say is in the pill you took today." God wants you to respect everything, everyone, and every moment. Life is very precious. Most importantly, remember that wise men have the power to reason away their misdeeds.

Please be careful,

Dad, Candy, and Kristen

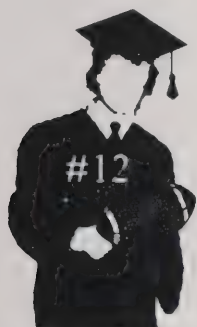

Dear Christopher,
 Congratulations! We are so very proud of you. Count down to the change in life
 that's soon to come—
 your life has just begun.
 Follow your heart, dream your dreams. Don't lose sight.

Don't sell
 yourself short.
 We love you always
 and forever.

We love you Katie

No matter what happens, keep on beginning and failing. Each time you fail, start all over again, and you will grow stronger until you find that you have accomplished a purpose—not the one you began with, perhaps, but one you will be glad to remember.

Gentle reader,

Don't ask me why, but I've never had to be too involved with this last page. Usually the staff tosses around some ideas and comes up with a message; then a few staff members lay out the page using a batch of candid pictures and, of course, the staff photo.

This year it was different. Nobody seemed to give this page much thought. Oh, there were a couple of suggestions that floated around, but nothing seemed to come of them. Now, don't get me wrong — it wasn't that the staff was unmotivated, or lazy, or procrastinators. Hardly. In fact, it was just the opposite. This crew was as dedicated, driven and determined as any great athletic team. They set goals, which they not only met, but beat — soundly. They had to give extra time to do it — after school, weekends, February vacation.

You read correctly. Half the staff came in on the Tuesday of the vacation to make sure we were going to beat our final deadline by the 25th of February. No questions asked, no complaints made. Some of the ones who couldn't come actually apologized for going away. (Measure that on an MCAS test. Sorry. Editorial comment.)

Not once did they think about the one page in the yearbook that belongs to them exclusively, even though they deserved to give themselves a good sendoff. But this may be a better tribute, because it's typical of their selflessness.

In the years to come, as you look through your yearbook, don't close it without reading the names at the bottom of this note. They cared so much about doing a good job. I think they succeeded. I hope you think so too.

If you had the time, you could count thousands of words and thousands of pictures in the 240 pages of Barnacle 2000. What you can't count, but what you can see on every page, are what made being part of this yearbook such a joy for all of us: the effort, good humor and boundless spirit of 22 wonderful young people. I thank them for allowing me to be part of that.

Sincerely,

Mr. O'Toole, for the Staff of Barnacle 2000

Jessica Bertucci, Jason Bravman, Katie Brengle, Kim Cameron, Anna Casey, Katelyn Collings, Robin Deliso, Mary Dunnett, Jessica Franco, Katelyn Grimes, Jessie Jay, Annemarie Klotz, Chelsea Loughran, Andrea Mackenzie, Kim McNamara, Lindsay Nason, Shelby Nelson, Amber Rutherford, Maia Sauro, Cory Sinclair, Jamie Sullivan, Amanda Weir

P.S. To the staff of Barnacle 2000 — "I count myself in nothing else so happy/ As in a soul remembering my good friends." — Shakespeare, Richard II (Whom else would I quote?) My memories of our time together will warm me even on the bleakest of days.
